DESCRIPTION

The Academy for Careers in Television and Film (TvF) is a Career & Technical Education high school that opened in 2008 in Long Island City, Queens. While TvF is nonselective in its admissions, the school has a deeply rooted commitment to providing all its students with an engaging and high quality educational experience comparable to the most selective programs throughout New York City. Since graduating its first cohort in June 2012, TvF has maintained a graduation rate of 95% or higher every year. TvF greatly values its faculty and staff, who are always supported in strengthening their practice and skills and to grow into leadership roles within the school.
